PURPOSE: These questions were put together to ensure that a member has a thorough understanding of the Coast Guard’s and Coast Guard Auxiliary’s Operations Policies and Procedures as well as the Maritime SAR Assistance Policy and General Salvage Policy and Firefighting Activities Policy as outlined in Chapter 3 of Coast Guard Addendum to the National SAR Manual.

At the this time there is no national knowledge requirement concerning the Operations Policy Manual; however, some district commanders may wish to require this knowledge for coxswains and these questions and answers are provided for that purpose.

The exam is to be closed book and may be given anytime in the 12 months before the “Dockside Oral Exam” but must be given by a QE. The exam may be written or oral. This is left up to the discretion of each QE. It is recommended that the QE use all 50 questions to insure the thoroughness of the candidates knowledge. A passing score of 90% is recommended.

Pages 2 through 4 contains a list of 50 questions (without answers) for QE’s to hand out for a closed book written exam. In those districts that use this exam as a requirement it is recommended that the QE use all 50 questions and require a 90% score for a passing grade. If a QE chooses not to use all 50 questions it is recommended that enough questions be asked to insure a thorough understanding of the material.

It is suggested that the same list of questions (with answers) on pages 5 through 12 be provided to all operational members as a training and study aide with the hope that they will memorize the information contained in it and thus have a thorough knowledge of the Operation Policy Manual.

    (COMDTINST M16798.3D, chap 4, par B-1)

21. Explain the Coast Guard’s Maritime SAR Assistance Policy for non-emergency cases.
    Ans: The CG serves as SAR coordinator for all maritime emergencies.
    If a boater has a non-emergency situation but needs some help, the CG will normally coordinate the effort to locate an alternate source of assistance.  An Auxiliarist on orders must follow the CG’s policy concerning Maritime SAR assistance.  An Auxiliary coxswain in a “Come Upon” case which has not made radio contact with the CG should relay the assistance request to the unit commander and may independently determine whether or not to provide aid and then provide aid if capable.
    No Auxiliary boat may tow another boat unless the safety of both boats,

41. What are the three emergency phases and what is the definition of each?
   Ans: 1. UNCERTAINTY – exists when there is knowledge of a situation that may need to be monitored, or to have more information gathered, but that does not require moving of resources.
         2. ALERT – phase exists when a craft or person is experiencing some difficulty and may need assistance, but is not in immediate danger or in need of immediate response. Apprehension is usually associated with the “Alert” phase.
         3. DISTRESS – phase exists when a craft or person is threatened by grave or imminent danger requiring immediate response to the distress scene.     (COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.2.b)

42. What is the primary CG concern in a SAR situation?
   Ans: Timely and effective assistance     (COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.4.b)

43. Who is usually in the best position to assess the circumstances of a particular case and to take whatever steps are necessary to promote the safety of life and property?
   Ans: The Operational Commander/SAR Mission Coordinator (SMC)     (COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.4.c)
44. What is the CG’s policy in non-distress cases if no commercial firm, marina, or friend is available?

Ans: If a commercial provider is available (usually one hour or less) or an offer to assist is made by a responder, no further action by the CG, beyond monitoring the incident, will be taken. Otherwise a CG Auxiliary facility, if available, or a CG resource may be used. (COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.5.c)

45. What are the three principals which guide assistance to vessels not in distress?

Ans:
1. Assistance normally will be provided by the responder which first arrives on scene with the vessel requesting assistance.
2. If a CG resource or Auxiliary facility takes a disabled vessel in tow, the tow will normally terminate at the nearest safe haven.
3. Once undertaken, there is no requirement to break the tow except as described below:
   a. The SMC and coxswain of the assisting vessel determine that a hand-off can be carried out safely; and either
   b. Alternative assistance is desired and arranged by the operator of the vessel being assisted; or
   c. The operational commander has a higher need for the CG resource or Auxiliary facility.

   (COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.5.c) & (COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.6.f)

46. What is the CG policy regarding non-distress use of the CG?

Ans: The CG both supports efforts of private enterprise and encourages volunteerism in assisting mariners. CG resources will not unnecessarily interfere with private enterprise. CG resources normally do not provide immediate assistance in non-distress cases where there is alternative assistance available. A CG resource may assist in non-distress situations when no higher priority mission exist and no other capable resource is available.

   (COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.5.d)

47. What is the CG’s policy for providing assistance to Auxiliary facilities?

Ans: CG resources or Auxiliary facilities may be used to help Auxiliary facilities in need of assistance at any time.

   (COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.5.h)
48. What considerations does the SMC take into consideration when determining the appropriate emergency phase to classify a case?

Ans:
1. Nature of the situation
2. Position or lack of known location
3. Type, size, reported condition of the vessel, food, water, emergency signaling devices, and survival/life saving equipment on board
4. Visibility, including daylight or darkness conditions
5. Present and forecasted weather including wind and sea conditions, air and sea temperature
6. Ability of the vessel to anchor
7. Special considerations such as number of POB’s, age, health, and special medical problems
8. Ability of the vessel to maintain reliable communications
9. Degree of concern of the mariner for the safety of the occupants of the vessel
10. The potential for the situation to worsen

(COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.6.a)

49. What is the CG’s policy regarding cases discovered by an Auxiliary facility?

Ans: When an Auxiliary facility on a routine Safety Patrol or otherwise on orders discovers a vessel requesting assistance, but not in radio contact with the CG, it should relay the request for assistance to the CG operational commander and may undertake to provide assistance if capable. No Auxiliary facility may undertake the tow of another vessel unless the Auxiliarist is reasonably assured of the safety of both vessels and the persons on board. If the Auxiliary vessel cannot safely tow a disabled vessel which is standing into danger, it may endeavor to remove the persons from the threatened vessel and stand by until a more capable resource arrives on scene.

(COMDTINST M16130.2B, Sec. 3.B.6.d)

50. What is the Coast Guard’s policy regarding firefighting on other than CG units?

Ans: Generally, Coast Guard personnel shall not actively engage in firefighting on other than CG units except in support of a regular firefighting agency under the supervision of a qualified fire officer. CG personnel shall not engage in independent firefighting operations, except to save a life or in the early stages of a fire to avert a significant threat without undue risk.
